

UANA SWIMMING COMMITTEE REPORT

Novembre 26, 2008

It was the plan of the committee to host the first UANA Pan American Junior Swimming Championship in summer 2009. This plan was not finalized and in April of this year 4 key nations, USA, Brazil, Mexico & Canada organized a Junior Championship to be held in Florida in August 2009. They will be inviting the remaining countries of the Americas to attend this event. We understand it will be run similar to the Pan Pac Junior event and therefore fills the need within the Americas to hold a Junior Swimming Championship to assist in the development of swimming in the America's
